Various points were discussed re cyclists and motor vehicles converging in parts of the area. Residents were encouraged to contact via phone or email.

There will be a street briefing when they will be talking to all residents on the 28 April 6-7 pm at Bergundy Court, Arland place. It was said that Bellway Homes have handed the properties over to a Management company no name was provided. It was agreed that more CCTV was required around the Borough both by the Council and the shop owners.

2 Apologies were received from

Sid Jackson, Teji Barnes, Vanessa Hurhangee and Steve Tuckwell

3 Previous minutes

It was pointed out that the date of the next meeting was given as 24 April and not the 25 April

4 LIDL

Sid has been in conversation with Lidl and there is further work to be done. The entry/exit facilities were raised and Cllr Kauffman said that this was being closely monitored.

5 HS2

The works for the preparation of the above is causing a severe amount of traffic chaos around the borough.

6 Traffic Congestion on Victoria Road

David Seaman read a note he had written addressed to "Mr Vice Chairman" regarding a letter that had been written to Cllr Burrows regarding vehicle congestion and road blockages. Mr Seaman wanted to know if we had received any response other than "they are looking into it".

Cllr Kauffman replied that the consultation re the residents parking had been completed but there was no final decision as yet. The situation of yellow lines between Arla and the Black Bull was discussed. The Residents Service Department are looking at the traffic issues with the intention of doing the least damage to carry out the works required.

Cllr Kauffman reported on the work on the Bridge at South Ruislip. D Knowles had met with TFL and said "things are looking good Allan".

7 SKLP

On the 4 April, Easter Saturday, the venue had been sub-let for a function with major traffic congestion. Cllr Judy Kelly has been dealing with this problem since she became a Councillor 12 years ago and the problem is still ongoing. She has spoken to Hillingdon's legal department over the years and suggested that the SRRA should look at taking legal action. This was opposed re the amount of money this would take and the fact that if Hillingdon Council were not prepared to take this on and they had far more resources than us it was suggested that we re-contact the Council to take this further.

Cllr Judy Kelly also said that after 12 years the situation at Glebe Farm was still causing concerns and hoped that her successor would continue to carry the baton.

There was a vote of thanks to Cllr Kelly for all her hard work and support over the years.

Cllr Kauffman was asked to take a look at the Polish Memorial site to see if more could be done regarding the parking situation.
